Also receive the gift of magicians understanding questions and answers, a textual solution ncert with the gift of magicians O henry a summary of the story in English and critical analysis. This is the story of a rather poor young couple Della and Mr. James Dillingham Young. Della counted the money she saved. It was all a total of one dollar and eighty-seven cents. And the next day it was Christmas. She wanted to buy her Jim (i.e. Mr. James Dillingham Young) a gift. She saved every penny she could for months. She managed to save only $1.87. She spent many hours planning something good for him. There were two possessions by James Dillingham Youngs in which they both took a lot of pride. One was Jim's gold watch and the other was Della's hair. Della decided to sell her beautiful long hair for Jim's gift. And, she sold it for twenty dollars with that money she bought a platinum fob chain simple and chaste in design. It's perfect for Jim's golden watch. At 7 o'clock, Della was waiting for Jim to come home. When Jim came and saw Della's short hair, he was utterly shocked. Della confessed to Jim that she sold her hair to buy him a present. Jim gave Della her gift, Combs-set combs, hand and back that Della had always dreamed of. She looked at Jim with dim eyes and a smile, and said: My hair grows so fast, Jim! And then Della showed Jim a chain for her watch. Jim fell on the sofa and put his hands under the back of his hand and smiled. He told Della that he sold his watch to get money to buy her crests. Thus, Della and Jim sacrificed their greatest possessions for each other.1 What's Jim's name? Ans: Jim full name James Dillingham Young.2. How much money did Della manage to save for Jim's gift? Ans: Della managed to save one dollar and eighty-seven cents for Jim present.3. Who could she go to get money for Jim's gift? As: Della went to Madame Saffroni to get money for Jim's gift.4 What gift did Della give to Jim? Ans: Jim's gift to Della was a set of beautiful turtle crests, side and back that she had always dreamed of. What was Della's cherished possession? Ans: Della's cherished possession was her long and beautiful hair, rippling and shiny as a cascade of brown waters. Anas: The Magi were three Sages - Gasper, Melchior and Balthazar - who traveled from the East to Jerusalem to see the baby Jesus born in the stables. They were guided by a star and carried precious gifts for Jesus. 2. Why was Della worried? Ans: Initially Della was worried about arranging the necessary money to buy a good gift for James for Christmas, since she only had one dollar and eighty-seven cents. So she sold her beautiful hair and brought a gift to James. Now her new look bothers her as she is more to the schoolboy's truant. Della was very concerned, thinking that Jim might be crucial about about Appearance. 3. What did Jim do to get a gift for Della? Ans: Jim sold his precious gold watch, a family heirloom, to get a gift for Della. 4. What did Della do after she got home? Ans: Upon reaching the house, Della took out her curling irons and lit the gas and went to work to repair the damaged hair. After forty minutes of hard work, she looked wonderfully like a schoolboy truant with tiny, close-lying curls on her head. At 7 o'clock she made coffee and got a frying pan ready to cook chops. 5. What was Jim's reaction when he got home? Ans: Jim was foxed for a moment to find Della without her long beautiful hair. His eyes were fixed on Della, but the expression of his eyes was incomprehensible to her, rather it frightened her. It was no anger, no surprise, no disapproval, no horror, no sense that Della was prepared for James just staring at her fixed with a peculiar expression on her face. 1. Deduce the relationship between Della and the queen of Sheba.Ans: The queen of Sheba, the biblical character, was a rich and powerful queen who came to King Solomon with a wealth of spices, gold and jewels to check for himself whether King Solomon was really wise. In The Gift of the Magi, author O'Henry draws a connection between Della and the queen of Sheba to think about Della's beautiful hair. Della, a key character in the story, had valuable possession of long, beautiful hair, rippling and shiny as a cascade of brown waters. She reached below the knee. In a light-hearted comparison, it was stated that if the queen sheba lived in the flat opposite, she would envy the strands of Della's hair to dry. Her wealth would pale/depreciate compared to Della's beautiful hair. 2. The relationship between Jim and King Solomon.As: King Solomon was a rich and powerful king of Israel and the son of David. His name is synonymous with wisdom. In The Gift of the Magi, author O'Henry draws on the relationship between Jim and King Solomon to glorify Jim's original gold watch. Jim, a key character in history, possessed a precious golden watch, a family heirloom in which he could be proud and even King Solomon might have envied. In a light-hearted comparison, it was stated that if King Solomon had been a janitor with all his treasures folded in the basement, he would have enviously ripped off his beard to find Jim to pull out his golden watch every time he passed by. 3. Show how the twist in the tale makes jim and Dell's story a moral lesson. Ans: In the story, Gift of the Magi Jim and Della had to sell their precious things to buy a gift for each other at Della's Christmas in order to fine, rare and sterling a gift for Jim to sell her long and beautiful hair beautiful enough to make the queen sheba jealous. Finally, she bought a platinum fob chain, simple and chaste in design, for Jim's gold watch. On the other hand sold his precious gold watch, a family heirloom that even King Solomon might have envied to buy an expensive turtle comb for Della's beautiful hair. The ironic twist in the tale is that both Della and Jim traded off the very treasures everyone possessed and for which the gifts were intended. The couple's love fervor ended in a situation that Jim beautifully reflected when he said: Let's put our Christmas presents away and keep them for a while, they are too good to use only now This twist in the tale makes the story of Jim and Della a moral lesson that the dedication of the desire to add happiness to the person who receives the gift and the spirit of sacrifice is the essence of gifts for Christmas. 1. Examine the meaning and appropriateness of the title of this story. Ans: Author O'Henry appropriately chose the name Gift of the Magi for the story of Della and Jim. The Magi were three sages - Gasper, Melchhir and Balthazar - who traveled from the East to Jerusalem to see the baby Jesus, born in the stables. They were guided by a star and carried precious gifts for Jesus. The Magi invented the tradition of giving gifts for Christmas. Being wise, their gifts were also undoubtedly wise. The story is centered around a young couple Della and Jim who are poor but hardworking, and their existence is full of struggle, but they manage to experience joy through the power of their love for each other. They planned to make Christmas Eve special with a wonderful gift for each other. Jim and Della had to sell their precious belongings to buy gifts for each other at Della's Christmas in order to fine, rare, and sterling a gift for Jim to sell her long and beautiful hair. Finally, she bought a platinum fob chain, simple and chaste in design, for Jim's gold watch. On the other hand, Jim sold his precious gold watch to buy an expensive turtle comb for Della's beautiful hair. But della and Jim's gifts are unique and wise in the sense that they reveal the true essence of giving gifts at Christmas, i.e. the dedication of the desire to add happiness to the one who receives the gift and spirit of sacrifice. Through O'Henry's terms of the couple as stupid children, he points out clearly that they value human relationships and their mutual love and generosity make their magi. Thus, the name is very significant and appropriate.2. Based on events, try to validate the story as an example of comic irony. Ans: In The Gift of the Magi author O'Henry uses comic irony to emphasize the morality of the story Jim and Della, two key characters of the story, had to sell their precious things to buy a gift for each other at Della's Christmas in order to fine, rare and sterling gift for Jim sold her long and beautiful hair. Finally, she bought a platinum fob chain, simple and chaste in design, for Jim's gold watch. On the other hand, Jim sold his precious Look to buy an expensive turtle comb for Della's beautiful hair. The ironic twist in history is that both Della and Jim sold the most treasures that everyone possessed, for which gifts were meant. A faint smile spread across the reader's lips with this ironic twist in the plot. but this irony makes Jim and Della's story a moral lesson that the dedication of the desire to add happiness to the one who receives the gift and the spirit of sacrifice is the essence of giving at Christmas.
